

April is National Poetry Month!

If you have written a poem or would like to, please join us in celebrating National Poetry Month by sharing it!! We would like to display your poem on our library website, along with a picture of you. So please submit your type written poem, with title and your name, to the Adult Circulation Desk and we will take a quick photo. Or if you have a photo, or do not wish to submit a photo, you can email your submission to wpl@sutv.com

I give permission, to the Wellington Public Library to publish my poem and picture on the Library's website (wellingtonpubliclibrary.org).
